

My Love,

Today is the most special day for you. My beautiful baby has turned 22, and the most loving person I have ever known has grown up. From the moment you came into my life, you have made every day even more meaningful. Sayang, you are such a wonderful person, always giving me strength, always cheering me up, and always being there for me.

Thank you for bringing joy and happiness into my life. Every single day, I find myself falling in love with you all over again. I feel so blessed to have someone like you in my life. On your birthday, my only wish is for your heart to be as full as you make mine. I hope all the people around you will always treat you with kindness and love. Baby doa sayang Always dipanjangkan umur, dimurahkan rezeki dan dipermudahkan segala rezeki di dunia dan di akhirat. Always be happy my love and be grateful for the family that cares for you so deeply. Enjoy your day my baby boo.

I love you.

Happy birthday, my love.
